“Changing Lives explores the value of consistent metacognitive relationships that are less likely to occur in typical college program models. It describes processes that inspire a ‘changed life,’ picking up where texts and advice guides leave off.”

Book Contents

Working from the Soul
Lynn Abrahams, M.Ed.

Reigniting the Light for Lifelong Learning
Paula Cocce, M.Ed.

We Make the Road by Walking: Transformative Learning in the Adult Center at PAL
Diane Goss, Ed.D.

Safe Passage
Jeanne Vandenberg, M.Ed.

Reading Ourselves
Michelle Gabow, M.F.A.

Meta-Metacognition: A Wave Unfurled
Patty Kean, M.Ed., ET/P

On Painting and Teaching: Analogies
George Herman, M.A.

The Professors’ New Shoes: Finding the Right Fit in Classrooms Full of Differences
Diane Webber, Ph.D.

Executive Functioning: Doing Something Right All Along
Laurie Fox, Ed.D., ET/P

How We Proceed
Lori Lubeski, M.A.

An Inclusive Model for Articulating Curriculum in Higher Education
Maria Bacigalupo, Ed.D.

Learning Conversations That Foster Metacognitive Development: A Magician’s Work
Susan Pennini, Ph.D.

The Locker
Andrea Baldi, Ed.D.

PAL for Multilingual Students with Learning Disabilities
Pat Mytkowicz, Ed.D., Grace Rooney, M.Ed., M.A.

Metacognition and Mandarin
Jeannette Landrie, M.Ed., Sanne Dinkel, M.Ed.

Changing Lives with Assistive Technology
Marie Saulnier, M.Ed.

Testing for Accommodations - Not a "Done Deal": An Exploration of Testing and Accommodations for Post-Secondary Level Education
Nancy Winbury, Ph.D.

Adults Transforming Their Lives: The Adult Center at the Program for Advancement of Learning
Jane Adelizzi, Ph.D., ATR, BCET

From High School to College: Preparing Students with LD/ADHD
Lori Lubeski, M.A., Jeannette Landrie, M.Ed.

The Change Process
Laurie Fox, Ed.D., ET/P

To order online, please go to www.curry.edu/PALpublications

Available at the Curry College Bookstore
Book price $20.00
Supports in part the Program for Advancement of Learning Scholarship Fund

Celebrating the 40th Anniversary of PAL
First comprehensive college program of its kind