has applied for admission to College Search East at Curry College. College Search East is a pre-college program for bright high school rising seniors with diagnosed language-based learning disabilities, AD/HD, and/or executive function weakness. The program is designed to introduce students to the college search process and to gain an understanding of the legal, academic, and social transition from high school to postsecondary education. Classroom activities will include identifying a personal learning profile and to set realistic goals. Additional activities lead to developing learning strategies, organization and time management skills, research methods, and study skills.

You have been asked to provide a recommendation for the above candidate. We are looking for students who are willing to engage in learning activities, who can work well in group situations, who display maturity and responsibility, and who can succeed independently in a residential program.

Please provide a candid rating of the student to help us assess the appropriateness of the program to the student.
