

Withdrawal from the College

A degree candidate wishing to withdraw from the College must do so by completing the online Withdrawal Request, available by logging into his/her myCurry account. Students are responsible for notifying the College of their intent to withdraw and must do so by initiating this process. The student must clear his/her financial status with the Student Financial Services Office. In addition, all keys, library materials, and other College property must be returned to the proper authorities before official withdrawal can be certified. Until such time as all obligations are met, the College will reserve the right to indicate unofficial withdrawal and the conditions under which the student left the College. Students to be dismissed for either academic or disciplinary reasons may not withdraw from the College. The student's official withdrawal date will be the date of notification of withdrawal to the college or the date the college determines that the student is no longer in attendance. Students who stop attending the College but do not complete the official withdrawal process will be reviewed by the Registrar's Office to determine their last date of academic activity and the determination of that last date of activity will be considered to be the student's official date of withdrawal. Students are responsible for all academic course work, for all tuition and other charges until officially withdrawn from the college.
