CONFIDENTIALITY STATEMENT

Under The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, a student attending a school may, on request, examine his/her educational record at that school. Under the law, the student may waive his/her right of access to confidential letters and statements of recommendation received during the application process. Waiving or retaining the right of access to review the records will not prejudice or enhance your prospects for admission. Experience indicates, however, that persons submitting recommendations and other information in connection with applications are more likely to do so with full candor and regard for the best interests of the applicant if they know that what they say will be kept in confidence. If you wish to waive your right of access, you should sign the waiver statement which follows:
