Milton Cohort Starting in Fall 2016

FALL 2016
- MSN 6200 Advanced Pathophysiology
- MSN 6000 Advanced Assessment and Clinical Reasoning
- MSN 6600 Informatics and Health Information Systems

SPRING 2017
- MSN 6300 Nursing Science and Evidence Based Practice
- MSN 6500 Advanced Pharmacology
- MSN 6040 Research and Statistical Analysis

FALL 2017
- MSN 6460 Curriculum Theory, Development, Design and Evaluation
- MSN 6760 Teaching Strategies and Evaluation Methods
- MSN 6450 Health Policy, Systems and Financing

SPRING 2018
- MSN 7982 Capstone Seminar (2 credits)
- MSN 7863 Teaching Practicum in Nursing Education (135 hours)
- MSN 6100 Leadership

The Nurse Educator program is designed for nurses pursuing teaching careers in educational or clinical settings and those interested in serving as preceptors, nursing clinical/academic instructors, and health care educators.

The Nurse Educator program is 35 credits. Each semester, students enroll in two or three courses that meet once per week during the day.