Family Education Rights & Privacy Act (FERPA) Release Form

The Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) (20 U.S.C. § 1232g; 34 CFR Part 99) is a Federal law that protects the privacy of student education, financial and academic records. For the student's protection, FERPA limits release of student record information without the student's explicit written consent.

If you would like to allow Student Financial Services to share financial information (billing, financial aid application and award records) with a person other than you the student, please complete this Release Form.

Complete and sign this form and return it to Student Financial Services

Student Disclosure and Release of Information

I understand that any and all personally identifiable information concerning my financial records is protected under FERPA. I further understand that I may waive that protection and give access to my financial records to individuals of my choice. This release allows the below named individual(s) to access financial information from records maintained only by the Office of Student Financial Services.

I agree to waive my rights under FERPA and allow the below-named person(s) to receive access to my financial records.
