Consortium Agreement Academic Year 2018-2019 (For study at another college/program)

This Consortium Agreement will allow you to use some of your federal or state financial aid (Federal Direct Stafford Loan, Federal Perkins Loan, Federal Pell Grant or state grant) at another school or program. This agreement specifies that only one institution, the “home” institution, may award federal financial aid. As the “home” institution, Curry College can recommend these forms of aid when its students study elsewhere and obtain permission in advance to transfer the courses to the Curry College degree program.

This form may be used for courses approved to be taken elsewhere, provided the student has the form completed by the Consortium School/Program and submits the appropriate financial aid application materials to the Curry College Office of Student Financial Services. As with all forms of federal aid, the student must also file a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

Refunds: Curry College will transfer funds directly to the Consortium School/Program; the student should contact the Office of Student Financial Services to make arrangements for transferring the funds. No refunds will be made to the student or the Consortium School/Program until all funds are actually received by Curry College. Please be aware, especially with state grants, funds may not be received until as late as two months after the beginning of the semester. If the student is dependent upon these funds to pay his or her bill and the Consortium School/Program requires payment prior to a refund being issued from Curry College, it is the student’s responsibility to make arrangements with the Consortium School/Program to have their bill covered.
